

We need to talk

YOUTH EXCHANGE

11.6.2019 - 20.6.2019, Velenje, Slovenija

SHORT DESCRIPTION

What will we do:

- With local theater we will create a theater performance where we will talk about topics, stories, experiences, that often remain hidden, obscure or silent in our wider society
- Discuss about social issues such as harassment, abuse, bullying, stereotypes, immigration, other traumas
- We will have work shops with professionals from those fields (psychologists, healthcare workers, associations and organisations)
- We will get acquainted with the project »Živa knjižnica«
(A live library is an innovative method of active dialogue we actively raise awareness of and educate people about human values, human rights and encourage debate on prejudices and stereotypes in society. The Living Libraries method confronts the reader / reader with his own prejudices and stereotypical performances and offers a concrete opportunity to meet with his own stereotype live).
- write down YOUTHPASS and plan our future voluntary path

Objectives of our project are:

- Talking publicly about very important issues in our society
- To encourage empathy, understanding, solidarity
- Informally educate young people on public speaking, promotion, technical assistance in the process of making theater performance
- Discover the possibilities of volunteering in local and international environment
- Empowerment of young people
